At least 11 displaced Palestinians were killed, and others injured, after Israeli occupation forces targeted tents in the Al-Mawasi area, west of Khan Yunis, in the southern Gaza Strip.

Gaza's interior ministry reported that the Israeli army assassinated Major General Mahmoud Salah, the Director-General of Police, along with Hussam Shahwan, a member of the Police Command Council, during the bombardment of Al-Mawasi.

Meanwhile, Israel's Defense Minister, Israel Katz, announced that the proposed conscription law could result in tens of thousands of Haredim being drafted into military service for the first time, pending approval.

According to Gaza's Ministry of Health, 45,553 Palestinians have been killed, and 108,379 wounded in Israel's ongoing genocide in Gaza starting on October 7, 2023.
