Staff

At least 50 Palestinians have been killed by Israeli shelling across the Gaza Strip since dawn today. According to sources, 30 of the victims were killed when Israeli forces bombed a school in Gaza City that was sheltering displaced families.

Meanwhile, the Israeli army claimed to have detected rocket fire from Gaza, and the Israeli newspaper Walla reported that Hamas still possesses hundreds of rockets. Israeli media also described the killing of Dr. Alaa al-Najjar's nine children as a "turning point", noting that international legitimacy for the army's operations in Gaza has effectively ended.

Since October 7, 2023, Israel has killed 53,939 and injured 122,797 others, the majority of whom are women and children, according to the Palestinian Ministry of Health in Gaza.

Axios: Israeli Official Reveals Unsanctioned Negotiations with Hamas through US-Palestinian Businessman

US MEDIA: Axios, citing an Israeli official, reported that Palestinian-American businessman Bishara Bahbah was recently in Doha on behalf of US Special Envoy Steve Witkoff:

According to the official, Bahbah conducted negotiations based on general directives from Witkoff. Witkoff's instructions reportedly stipulated that any agreement must include the release of 10 living captives and a 60-day ceasefire.

Crucially, Witkoff's directive to Bahbah also included a US commitment that Israel would engage in serious negotiations to end the war.

Bahbah reportedly agreed to a Hamas proposal for the release of five captives at the beginning of the ceasefire and five at its conclusion.

However, the Israeli official stated that they rejected the formula agreed upon by Bahbah and Hamas, fearing it could be interpreted as a complete cessation of the war immediately after the truce without further negotiation.

Israel reportedly fully rejected the deal reached by Bahbah with Hamas.
