Palestinian resistance groups in Gaza carried out several complex ambushes, killing and wounding invading Israeli soldiers, as Israeli forces continued their attacks on civilians across the besieged Strip.

Meanwhile, Iranian missiles struck sensitive military targets in Haifa and Beersheba, reportedly bypassing Israeli air defenses.

Since October 7, 2023, Israel has killed 55,908 and injured 131,138 others, the majority of whom are women and children, according to the Palestinian Ministry of Health in Gaza.

Israel Continues to Block Fuel Shipments to Gaza, UN Warns of Catastrophic Consequences

AL-JAZEERA: The United Nations has confirmed that Israeli occupation forces have prevented fuel shipments from entering Gaza for the 16th consecutive week, warning of the catastrophic consequences of these practices on the lives of the Strip's residents.

Stéphane Dujarric, Spokesperson for the UN Secretary-General, stated during a press conference that Israel has prevented fuel shipments from entering Gaza for 16 weeks.

He noted that UN officials were able to recover some fuel already present in the Gaza Strip from the Al-Tahrir station in Rafah last Wednesday.

A limited amount of this fuel was delivered last Thursday to public facilities in the southern part of the Strip, allowing water desalination plants, water distribution truck services, and sewage pumping stations to continue operations.

The UN official also revealed that fuel was sent to northern Gaza yesterday, Friday, but the lack of fuel is restricting operations and leading to a decrease in operating hours and work capacity.

Araghchi: It's Up to Americans to Show Intent to Negotiate or Attack

US MEDIA: NBC News, citing Iranian Foreign Minister Abbas Araghchi, reported:

It's up to the Americans to show their determination to negotiate or that they want to attack us.

If Washington wanted diplomacy, we were engaged with them when Israel attacked us.

If the Americans are serious about diplomacy, they should contact Israel to stop its aggression.

We concluded that American diplomacy was a cover for what Israel did.

We achieved nuclear technology with our own capabilities and we can rebuild what was destroyed.

There is currently a lack of trust with the United States.

Perhaps Washington had a plan to attack Iran and only needed negotiations as a cover.

Returning to diplomacy is only possible when the aggression stops and the aggressor is held accountable.

We are currently striking Israeli economic facilities after they began targeting our economic facilities.

The path to diplomacy will be paved, but we must see a halt to aggression, then America's role, then we will decide.

I believe envoy Witkoff is a good man and someone we can work with.

Iran Confirms Direct Hits on Israeli Military Sites in Friday Missile Strike

IRANIAN MEDIA: Iranian state television, citing Ebrahim Azizi, head of the Iranian Parliament's National Security Committee, reported that 23 missiles were launched on Friday as part of Iran's ongoing military response to Israeli attacks. According to Azizi, all missiles successfully struck their intended targets.

He stated that key Israeli intelligence facilities suffered extensive damage, and that “most of the military centers we aimed for were hit and destroyed.” The statement marks one of the most direct and confident assessments by Iranian officials regarding the precision and impact of their retaliatory strikes.

CNN: Israel Cannot Eliminate All of Iran’s Nuclear Facilities

CNN (citing Israeli officials):

According to Israeli officials cited by CNN, Israel launched its operation against Iran without a firm US commitment to join.

They believed that early military successes might entice Trump into military involvement.

However, the pace of Israeli success is slowing, and officials warn that this increases the risk of a miscalculation.

They acknowledged that Israel cannot eliminate all of Iran’s nuclear facilities.

Trump: Iran Is Suffering, I Cannot Decide Now

US PRESIDENT DONALD TRUMP:

Trump said talks with Iran might happen soon, emphasizing that Iran wants to negotiate with the US, not Europe.

He claimed Iran was weeks away from acquiring a nuclear weapon.

“I can’t make a decision now,” Trump said, adding, “Iran is the one suffering, and I don’t know how to stop the fighting.”

He praised Israel’s military performance and said it would be hard to ask them to stop airstrikes.

He floated the idea of a ceasefire “depending on the conditions” and gave Iran a two-week deadline to “come to its senses.”
