The Israeli newspaper Maariv reported that Israel is on high alert in anticipation of a broad Iranian response, amid estimates that electricity and communications lines will be targeted.

Several Palestinians were killed and injured in Israeli strikes targeting the Al-Bureij camp and the Al-Zaytoun neighborhood, in central Gaza.

US Secretary of Defense Lloyd Austin informed his Israeli counterpart Yoav Gallant of additional measures to support Israel's defense.

According to Gaza's Ministry of Health, 39,550 Palestinians have been killed, and 91,280 wounded in Israel's ongoing genocide in Gaza starting on October 7.
