Egypt Condemns Netanyahu’s Statements

EGYPTIAN MEDIA: The Egyptian Ministry of Foreign Affairs:

We condemn Netanyahu’s statements, which include misleading information that contradicts the efforts Egypt has made since the start of the aggression on Gaza.

Netanyahu's statements aim to cover up Israel's violations against Palestinian civilians and vital infrastructure.

We express our complete rejection of any statements that target the displacement of the Palestinian people to Egypt, Jordan, or Saudi Arabia.

We stand in solidarity with the brave people of Gaza who cling to their land to defend their just and legitimate cause.

Trump: Committed to Buying Gaza and Owning It

US MEDIA: US President Donald Trump:

I am committed to buying Gaza and owning it, and I may give parts of it to other countries in the Middle East to rebuild.

I will turn Gaza into a good place for future development.

I will meet with Mohammed bin Salman and Sisi.

Middle Eastern countries will host the Palestinians after they talk to me.

We will rebuild Gaza through other wealthy countries in the Middle East.

Gaza is a prime real estate location that we cannot leave behind.

Yedioth Ahronoth Reveals Netanyahu's Demands for Second Stage of Gaza Agreement

ISRAELI MEDIA: Yedioth Ahronoth newspaper:

Netanyahu plans to present Israel's demands for the second stage of the agreement for approval at the Cabinet meeting on Tuesday.

There are estimates in Israel that Hamas will not accept Israel's demands for the second stage.

The demands include expelling Hamas leadership from Gaza, dismantling its military arm, disarming it, and releasing all hostages.

Accepting these demands would lead to the end of the war on Israel's part.

Netanyahu reached agreements on the principles of the second stage with Trump and his Middle East envoy.

Given the expectations that Hamas will reject the demands, Israel will make efforts to extend the first stage as much as possible.

The aim is to allow the release of more hostages and extend the ceasefire.

Hamas: Trump's Statements are Absurd, Gaza is Not a Property to Buy

PALESTINAIN MEDIA: Hamas Political Bureau member Izzat Al-Rishq:

We condemn Trump's statements about 'buying and owning Gaza'.

These statements are absurd and reflect a deep ignorance of Palestine and the region.

Gaza is not a property to be bought and sold.

Its an integral part of our occupied Palestinian land.

Dealing with the Palestinian cause with a real estate mentality is a recipe for failure.

Our Palestinian people will thwart all plans of displacement and expulsion.

Gaza belongs to its people, and they will leave it only for their cities and villages occupied in 1948.

Hamis: What the Occupation Failed to Achieve, Trump Won't Achieve Through Real Estate Deals

HAMAS SPOKESPERSON AL-QANOU:

Gaza is liberated by the hands of its people and fighters, and it is forbidden to invaders and any external force.

The withdrawal of occupation forces from Neetzarim came as a result of the resistance's bravery and our people's steadfastness.

The Zionist occupation continues to obstruct the implementation of the humanitarian protocol, especially the entry of tents, fuel, and heavy equipment.

What the occupation failed to achieve in 15 months, President Trump will not achieve through real estate deals.
