Sources at Nasser Hospital in Gaza reported that three people were killed and 35 others injured by Israeli occupation forces near the American Company's aid center west of Rafah.

Meanwhile, Mehdi al-Mashat, head of the Supreme Political Council of Ansarallah in Yemen, issued a warning to foreign companies against investing in Israel. "We have received confirmation from companies that are ready to transfer their investments in response to our warning and to avoid more serious consequences," he said. "We advise the rest to leave."

Since October 7, 2023, Israel has killed 54,418 and injured 124,190 others, the majority of whom are women and children, according to the Palestinian Ministry of Health in Gaza.

No Western Eyes Needed: Gaza is Already Seen through Palestinian Lenses

PALESTINE CHRONICLE: Philippe Lazzarini, UNRWA Commissioner General, is the latest person to use the distraction of calling for "international media" to be allowed into Gaza "to independently report on the ongoing atrocities including this morning's heinous crime."

Western journalists have been demanding this for months. But, the truth is there is not a single Western journalist who could report effectively from inside Gaza in this genocide. We do not have the skills, the contacts, the knowledge of the ground, and the society.
