Red Cross: Hundreds of Thousands of Families in Gaza Below Poverty Line

RED CROSS SPOKESPERSON IN GAZA:

Hundreds of thousands of families in Gaza have fallen below the poverty line.

The humanitarian crisis in Gaza has not improved as needed.

Israel must allow the entry of as much aid as possible without obstacles.

The ceasefire in Gaza must continue.

Food supplies and cooking gas must be allowed into the strip.

We do not want people to lose their lives due to lack of food.

We want to see a stable humanitarian response to bring about the necessary change.

Europe Strongly Rejects Any Attempt to Alter Gaza's Demographics or Territory

EU FOREIGN POLICY CHIEF KAJA KALLAS:

Europe strongly rejects any attempt to alter the demographics or territory of Gaza.

We welcome the Arab reconstruction plan recently presented at the Cairo Summit and adopted by the Organization of Islamic Cooperation.

The Arab plan for Gaza is a serious proposal to discuss the future of the strip, and we will discuss these ideas with our Arab partners.

We support a future independent Palestinian state, with Gaza as an integral part of it, and will work with the international community to rebuild the strip.

Humanitarian aid to Gaza must not be politicized or tied to conditions.

All obstacles preventing the delivery of aid to Gaza must be removed.

Hamis: Closure of Crossings Violates Ceasefire Agreement

HAMAS STATEMENT:

The occupation continues to completely close Gaza's crossings, worsening the suffering of over two million Palestinians.

The closure of crossings violates the ceasefire agreement, which stipulates the facilitation of unrestricted aid entry.

The closure of crossings and the prevention of heavy machinery entry hinder efforts to recover bodies and carry out reconstruction in Gaza.

We call on mediators to pressure the occupation to adhere to its commitments, open the crossings, and end the policy of collective punishment against our people.

We condemn the use of aid as a political blackmail tool and affirm that these aggressive policies will not break the will of our people.
