Hamas: War Criminal Netanyahu Disregards International Laws Due to Lack of Accountability

STATEMENT (The Palestinian Resistance Movement Hamas):

The occupation's army continued its bombardment of our people in Gaza throughout the first day of Eid al-Fitr, resulting in the martyrdom of dozens.

What encourages the war criminal Netanyahu to continue disregarding international laws is the absence of accountability and the failure of the international community.

We call on free nations to take immediate action and organize events to pressure governments into stopping the aggression on Gaza and the West Bank.

We urge the international community to pressure the occupation to halt the aggression and return to the agreement, enabling prisoner exchange operations.
