A video circulating on social media shows a Yemeni missile flying over occupied Jerusalem on Tuesday morning. The Israeli army claimed it intercepted the missile before it reached its target.

Meanwhile, Palestinian resistance groups in Gaza announced a series of operations as Israeli massacres continued. Airstrikes and artillery shelling across the Strip have killed and wounded scores of Palestinians.

Since October 7, 2023, Israel has killed 54,056 and injured 123,129 others, the majority of whom are women and children, according to the Palestinian Ministry of Health in Gaza.

PALESTINE CHRONICLE: My name is Asil Mahmoud Hamad, and I am from Gaza. I had a family of four: myself, my husband, Ahmed Abu Watfa, and our two children—Zakariya, who was 6 years old, and Yahya, who is 4.

We were living a peaceful, beautiful life, but suddenly, war forced us out of our home into an area designated as a humanitarian zone. We took only a bottle of water and a loaf of bread, thinking the situation would last no more than a week. Now, a year later, we are still living in a tent on the street—and it has cost us everything we had.

Read the harrowing testimony by Asil Hamd, reporting from war-torn Gaza.
