The International Court of Justice (ICJ) ruled on Wednesday that Israel is obliged to ensure that the population of the Gaza Strip has “the basic needs” essential for survival in accordance with international humanitarian law.

Meanwhile, the Al-Quds Brigades’ new spokesperson, Abu Hamza, vowed to continue armed resistance against Israel, honoring his slain predecessor and reaffirming unity among Palestinian factions amid what he called a “war of extermination.”

Since October 7, 2023, Israel has killed 68,234 and injured 170,373 others, the majority of whom are women and children, according to the Palestinian Ministry of Health in Gaza.
